About Best Friends Animal Society Houston

Best Friends Animal Society Houston is a regional extension of the national Best Friends Animal Society, headquartered in Utah. It serves as a pivotal organization within Houston's animal rescue and welfare landscape. The society's mission is to end the killing of dogs and cats in shelters across the city by promoting adoption, spay/neuter initiatives, and community education. Best Friends Animal Society Houston operates with a no-kill philosophy, striving to save as many animals as possible through innovative programs and partnerships.

The Houston branch focuses on collaboration with local shelters, rescue groups, and animal control agencies to reduce euthanasia rates and improve shelter conditions. By providing resources, funding, and volunteer support, Best Friends Animal Society Houston helps shelters transition to more humane and sustainable practices. The organization also raises awareness about responsible pet ownership and the importance of adopting rather than buying pets.

History and Mission

Founded as part of Best Friends Animal Society's national expansion, the Houston chapter was established to address the unique challenges faced by animals in the Houston metropolitan area. The organization's core mission aligns with that of the national society: to create a world where every pet has a safe and loving home. This mission is pursued through advocacy, education, and direct animal care services tailored to the needs of Houston's diverse communities.

Organizational Structure

Best Friends Animal Society Houston is managed by a dedicated team of animal welfare professionals, shelter partners, and volunteers. The structure includes program directors, adoption coordinators, community outreach specialists, and veterinary staff. Together, they oversee the implementation of programs, animal care standards, and community initiatives designed to maximize the impact on animal welfare.

Programs and Services

Best Friends Animal Society Houston offers a wide array of programs and services aimed at reducing pet homelessness and promoting animal welfare across the city. These efforts are designed to support both animals and the people who care for them, ensuring long-term positive outcomes.

Rescue and Rehabilitation

The rescue program focuses on identifying animals at high risk of euthanasia in local shelters and transferring them to Best Friends facilities or partner sanctuaries. Once rescued, animals receive comprehensive medical evaluations, necessary treatments, behavioral assessments, and rehabilitation to prepare them for adoption.

Spay and Neuter Initiatives

Controlling the pet population is a cornerstone of Best Friends Animal Society Houston's strategy. The organization provides affordable or free spay/neuter services to underserved communities, reducing unwanted litters and alleviating pressure on shelters. Mobile clinics and partnerships with veterinary providers help expand the reach of these services.

Education and Outreach

Community education programs emphasize responsible pet ownership, the benefits of adoption, and humane treatment of animals. These initiatives include school presentations, workshops, and public awareness campaigns designed to foster empathy and informed decision-making regarding pets.

Support for Local Shelters

Best Friends Animal Society Houston collaborates closely with municipal shelters and rescue groups by offering training, funding, and resource sharing. This support enhances shelter operations, improves animal care, and promotes no-kill shelter practices throughout the Houston area.

Adoption Process and Available Animals

Adopting a pet through Best Friends Animal Society Houston is designed to be a positive and informed experience for prospective pet owners. The organization maintains a diverse selection of dogs, cats, and small animals available for adoption, all of whom have been carefully screened and cared for.

Adoption Requirements

Prospective adopters must complete an application that helps assess their readiness and suitability for pet ownership. Requirements typically include a home visit or interview, verification of living arrangements, and a commitment to long-term care. These measures ensure the well-being of the animals and reduce the likelihood of return or abandonment.

Available Animals

The shelter regularly houses a variety of animals ranging from puppies and kittens to adult dogs and cats, as well as occasional small mammals. Each animal's profile includes relevant health, behavioral, and personality information to help adopters find the best match for their lifestyle.

Adoption Fees and Benefits

Adoption fees help cover the costs of veterinary care, vaccinations, microchipping, and spaying/neutering. Adopters receive ongoing support from Best Friends Animal Society Houston, including access to resources on pet care and behavior, ensuring successful integration into their new homes.

Volunteer and Community Engagement

Volunteering is a critical component of Best Friends Animal Society Houston's operations, providing essential support in animal care, events, and outreach activities. The organization offers numerous opportunities for individuals to contribute their time and skills to help animals in need.

Volunteer Roles

- Animal Care Volunteers: Assist with feeding, grooming, exercise, and socialization of shelter animals.
- Adoption Counselors: Guide potential adopters through the adoption process and provide information about available pets.
- Event Coordinators: Help organize fundraising and community awareness events.
- Foster Care Providers: Temporarily house animals in need of special care or socialization before adoption.

Community Partnerships

Best Friends Animal Society Houston actively partners with local businesses, schools, and civic organizations to promote animal welfare initiatives. These collaborations enhance community involvement and expand the reach of educational campaigns and rescue efforts.

Fundraising and Advocacy

Engagement in fundraising activities and advocacy campaigns is encouraged to support the organization's mission. Volunteers and supporters participate in events such as charity runs, adoption drives, and public policy advocacy to advance animal protection laws and funding.

Impact on Houston's Animal Welfare

Best Friends Animal Society Houston has made significant contributions to transforming the landscape of animal welfare in the Houston region. Through its comprehensive programs, the organization has helped reduce euthanasia rates and increase adoption success across multiple communities.

Reduction in Shelter Euthanasia

The no-kill approach championed by Best Friends Animal Society Houston has led to measurable declines in the number of animals euthanized in local shelters. Rescue operations and spay/neuter programs have been instrumental in achieving these outcomes.

Increased Adoption Rates

By improving the visibility of adoptable animals and enhancing the adoption experience, Best Friends Animal Society Houston has boosted adoption rates significantly. Their efforts have not only found homes for countless pets but also increased public awareness about the benefits of adoption.

Enhanced Community Awareness

Educational outreach and advocacy campaigns have fostered a more compassionate and informed community, encouraging responsible pet ownership and support for animal welfare initiatives. This cultural shift benefits animals and people alike by promoting coexistence and care.

Support for Vulnerable Populations

The organization's programs also focus on underserved and vulnerable populations, providing resources and assistance to pet owners facing economic or social challenges. This inclusive approach ensures that more pets receive proper care and remain in loving homes.

best friends animal society houston: Animals and Ourselves Kathy Merlock Jackson, Kathy Shepherd Stolley, Lisa Lyon Payne, 2020-09-25 The relationship between humans and animals has always been strong, symbiotic and complicated. Animals, real and fictional, have been a mainstay in the arts and entertainment, figuring prominently in literature, film, television, social media, and live performances. Increasingly, though, people are anthropomorphizing animals, assigning them humanoid roles, tasks and identities. At the same time, humans, such as members of the furry culture or college mascots, find pleasure in adopting animal identities and characteristics. This book is the first of its kind to explore these growing phenomena across media. The contributors to this collection represent various disciplines, to include the arts, humanities, social sciences, and healthcare. Their essays demonstrate the various ways that human and animal lives are intertwined and constantly evolving.

best friends animal society houston: Saving Sandy Diana B. Mahoney, 2023-05-27 This true story of a throw away German Shepherd dog bears witness to the love, trust, and determination of the animal spirit. Her Facebook Family became part of her extended family and continues to make a difference in the effort to end animal abuse and neglect. Through their constant encouragement, Sandy's mom and dad were able to provide Sandy with quality of life. They shared their hearts, their love, their gifts and their lives with us for over a year on a continuous journey filled with trials, long hours, perseverance and most of all filled with life lessons. One dog named Sandy. An unexpected gift to us and to all who were blessed by knowing her. To you, the friends who posted and loved her so, the Facebook Family that remains even now, our heartfelt love and thanks. We are so grateful that she touched your lives and that, through her, many of you began to volunteer in shelters, adopted pets needing homes, and became advocates for animals in need.

best friends animal society houston: My Old Dog Laura T. Coffey, 2015-09-15 “No Dog Should Die Alone” was the attention-grabbing — and heart-stirring — headline of journalist Laura T. Coffey’s TODAY show website story about photographer Lori Fusaro’s work with senior shelter pets. While generally calm, easy, and already house-trained, these animals often represent the highest-risk population at shelters. With gorgeous, joyful photographs and sweet, funny, true tales of “old dogs learning new tricks,” Coffey and Fusaro show that adopting a senior can be even more rewarding than choosing a younger dog. You’ll meet endearing elders like Marnie, the irresistible shih tzu who has posed for selfies with Tina Fey, James Franco, and Betty White; Remy, a soulful nine-year-old dog adopted by elderly nuns; George Clooney’s cocker spaniel, Einstein; and Bretagne, the last known surviving search dog from Ground Zero. They may be slower moving and a tad less exuberant than puppies, but these pooches prove that adopting a senior brings immeasurable joy, earnest devotion, and unconditional love.

best friends animal society houston: DAWGS Diane Trull, Meredith Wargo, 2020-03-31 Grand Prize Winner of the HEARTEN Award presented by the Chanticleer International Book Awards Award Winner in the Animals/Pets: Narrative Nonfiction category of the 2021 Best Book Awards sponsored by American Book Fest We can all make a difference. Elementary-school teacher Diane Trull’s life-defining moment happened when her fourth-grade reading class saw a photo of a cardboard box overflowing with homeless puppies. Her young students were determined to save these lost pups and others like them. In that moment, the Dalhart Animal Wellness Group and Sanctuary—known as DAWGS—was born. How Trull and her fourth graders started their own animal shelter is a story of dedication, commitment, and perseverance. Trull shares inspiring stories about animals and animal lovers of all ages in this moving story of hope and compassion. DAWGS is a testament to how love and a strong measure of determination can offer second chances—one animal, one child, and one day at a time. “Get ready to feel a lot. This book is inspiring all along the way.” —Bernadette Peters, award-winning actress “I’m blown away. I hope this story reaches thousands of readers.” —Susan Wilson, New York Times bestselling author of One Good Dog “I loved DAWGS! It will inspire you and warm your heart.” —Kristin von Kreisler, bestselling author of An Unexpected Grace best friends animal society houston: Filling the Ark Leslie Irvine, 2021-06-30 When disasters strike, people are not the only victims. Hurricane Katrina raised public attention about how disasters affect dogs, cats, and other animals considered members of the human family. In this short but powerful book, noted sociologist Leslie Irvine goes beyond Katrina to examine how disasters like oil spills, fires, and other calamities affect various animal populations—on factory farms, in research facilities, and in the wild. Filling the Ark argues that humans cause most of the risks faced by animals and urges for better decisions about the treatment of animals in disasters. Furthermore, it makes a broad appeal for the ethical necessity of better planning to keep animals out of jeopardy. Irvine not only offers policy recommendations and practical advice for evacuating animals, she also makes a strong case for rethinking our use of animals, suggesting ways to create more secure conditions.

best friends animal society houston: Rethinking Rescue Carol Mithers, 2024-08-20 NOW WITH A NEW AFTERWORD ABOUT THE IMPACT OF THE PALISADES FIRE ON ANIMAL RESCUES IN LOS ANGELES Rethinking Rescue boldly confronts two of the biggest challenges of our time—poverty and homelessness—in asking the question: Who deserves the love of a pet? In Los Angeles’s most underserved communities, Lori Weise is known as the Dog Lady, the woman who’s spent decades caring for people in poverty and the animals that love them. Long before anyone else, Weise grasped that animal and human suffering are inextricably connected and created a new rescue narrative: an enduring safety net empowering pet owners and providing resources to reduce the number of pets coming into shelters. Rethinking Rescue: Dog Lady and the Story of America’s Forgotten People and Pets unites the causes of animal welfare and social justice, moving between Weise’s story and that of the larger U.S. rescue movement. Through captivating storytelling and investigative reporting, Carol Mithers examines the consequences of bias within this overwhelmingly white movement, where an overemphasis on placing animals in affluent homes disregards pet owners in poverty. Weise’s innovative and ultimately triumphant efforts revealed a better way. As cities across the country witness some of the worst housing crises in history, and as the population of unhoused people and pets continues to skyrocket, Rethinking Rescue offers a story of compassion and hope.

best friends animal society houston: How to Understand Men Through Their Dogs Wendy Diamond, 2006 There are more than 68 million dogs in the United States alone, and half of these pups belong to men. And because men identify with their pets, the secret to sniffing out Mr. Right may be...his pooch. Find out! The Editorial Director of Animal Fair, a lifestyle magazine for animal lovers, shares her own insights, amusing experiences, and extensive research on the subject with eager women everywhere. Using 32 different breeds of male as examples, she explores the link between human and canine, and the personality traits they share. Will an Irish Setter man always head to the pub? Can you successfully stay in the race with Mr. Greyhound? Are Rottweilers really dangerous? So many questions, so few answers...until now.

best friends animal society houston: Miracle Dog Randy Grim, 2005 A miraculous, funny, eye-opening and inspirational story for all animal lovers. Between five and twelve million animals are euthanized across the United States each year--more than one thousand every hour. Quentin, a Basenji mix, survived his death sentence and with his new owner, Randy Grim, has launched a campaign to end euthanization in shelters. Grim is the subject of the book The Man Who Talks to Dogs, and the founder of Stray Rescue of St. Louis.

Written with empathy, wisdom, understanding and sprinkled with laugh-out-loud humor, the book reads like Ray is sitting with you at your kitchen table talking dogs. Join this highly gifted dog man as he travels the U.S. Canada, England and India, helping some of his more than 24,000 clients solve their troubled dogs' issues by a process of gaining and giving mutual trust and respect, along with a clear leader presence. Called the last resort by many dog owners, the man truly is a ray of hope.

best friends animal society houston: Clinician's Guide to Treating Companion Animal Issues Lori R. Kogan, Christopher Blazina, 2018-09-14 Clinician's Guide to Treating Animal Companion Issues: Addressing Human-Animal Interaction is the first of its kind—a groundbreaking resource for mental health professionals who want the knowledge, skills and awareness to successfully work with pet-owning clients. The book trains clinicians across multiple disciplines to feel more comfortable and confident addressing companion-related issues—both when those issues are the primary reason for seeking therapy or a critical component in better understanding client needs. The book uses current human-animal interactions theories as a foundation to explore pet-related issues utilizing behavioral, cognitive behavioral, family systems, humanistic and contemporary psychodynamic therapeutic orientations. Users will find sections on the many issues that arise during the lifespan of pet owners (e.g., children, young adults, elderly), as well as issues pertinent to specific populations (e.g., men, homeless, ethnically diverse). Additional topics include the violence link, pet death and bereavement, and behavioral issues. As the first book to approach human-animal interactions (HAI) from a multi-theoretical perspective, it helps clinicians appropriately acknowledge and incorporate relevant HAI issues within therapy to achieve goals. - Provides practical information for immediate use in practice - Focuses on common issues relating to companion animals - Addresses bereavement, attachment, behavior, and more - Includes interactive readings, case studies and therapeutic exercises - Contains multiple theoretical orientations (behavioral, cognitive behavioral, family systems, humanistic and psychodynamic approaches)
