freaky would you rather questions for couples: You Gotta Be Kidding! Workman Publishing, 2020-07-14 Gross, embarrassing, and just plain silly questions about boogers, bugs, smelly socks, itchy scabs, and more! Adapted from the hugely popular board game, this interactive and completely engaging book serves up hundreds of bizarre, embarrassing, sometimes ethical and sometimes stomach-churning dilemmas that kids will love to pose to their friends and siblings, whether in the backseat, on a sleepover, at a party, on a rainy day, or during a lull in the lunchroom (if you dare). Ponder the icky: Would you rather eat 10 pounds of cheese -OR- a bucket of peanut butter—with nothing to drink? The exponentially icky: Would you rather drink liquid found leaking from a garbage can -OR- chew on a hairy clump found between the cushions of an old couch? The fantastic: Would you rather be able to talk with all animals -OR- be able to understand all languages? The priority-testing: As a soccer player, would you rather mess up and score a goal for the other team but still have your team win -OR- play your best game ever even though your team loses? And the hair-raising: Would you rather swim across a river that is filled with crocodiles -OR- spend the night on an island where man-eating tigers live? Fascinating sidebars throughout are filled with interesting ancillary information—the nature of drool, left-handedness vs. right-handedness, what's dangerously filthy and what's just gross, why we blush when we're embarrassed—so kids can learn something as they laugh!

freaky would you rather questions for couples: Unraveling Bias Christia Spears Brown, 2021-11-30 NATIONAL INDIE EXCELLENCE AWARD WINNER — PARENTING & FAMILY 2022 IPPY AWARDS GOLD MEDALIST — PARENTING “Timely, informative, thought-provoking, inspirationally motivating.” —Midwest Book Review [Brown] offers pragmatic advice for teachers on how to stand up for diversity and inclusiveness in the classroom. —San Francisco Book Review We need only scan the latest news headlines to see how bias and prejudice harm adults and children alike—every single day. Police shootings that give rise to the Black Lives Matter revolution . . . rampant sexual harassment of women and the subsequent #MeToo movement . . . extreme violence toward trans men and women. It would be easy to fix these problems if the examples stopped with a few racist or sexist individuals, but there are also biases embedded in our government policies, media, and institutions. As a developmental psychologist and international expert on stereotypes and discrimination in children, Dr. Christia Spears Brown knows that biases and prejudice don’t just develop as people become adults (or CEOs or politicians). They begin when children are young, slowly growing and exposed to prejudice in their classrooms, after-school activities, and, yes, even in their homes, no matter how enlightened their parents may consider themselves to be. The only way to have a more just and equitable world—not to mention more broad-minded, empathetic children—is for parents to closely examine biases beginning in childhood and how they infiltrate our kids’ lives. In her new book Unraveling Bias: How Prejudice Has Shaped Children for Generations and Why It's Time to Break the Cycle, Dr. Brown will uncover what scientists have learned about how children are impacted by biases, and how we adults can help protect them from those biases. Part science, part history, part current events, and part call to arms, Unraveling Bias provides readers with the answers to vital questions: How do biased policies, schools, and media harm our children? Where does childhood prejudice come from, and how do these prejudices shape children’s behavior, goals, relationships, and beliefs about themselves? What can we learn from modern-day science to help us protect our children from these biases? Few issues today are as critical as being aware of bias and prejudice all around us and making sure our kids don’t succumb to them. To change lives and advance society, it’s time to unravel our biases—starting with the future leaders of the world.

freaky would you rather questions for couples: The Illinois Agriculturist , 1907 freaky would you rather questions for couples: Wrestling with Randi Leah Mae Wright, 2022-02-15 Randi Mae Lee felt like she was stuck in a rut and had no idea how to crawl her way out of it. She had tried to portray herself as outgoing and confident all her life, but she felt awkward in the good girl role everyone expected her to play as the sheriff’s daughter. After a traumatic lecture from her parents as a teenager, she mostly repressed her sexuality and any part of her personality that she thought might cause a repeat. She struggled with feelings of guilt anytime she acted on her baser instincts, never letting a boyfriend turn the relationship sexual until after at least a month of dating, and always breaking up with them within a few days of their first time together. Randi secretly longed to find a way to start standing up for herself and living life on her own terms. She wanted to find her dream job and break her bad relationship cycle, but fear kept holding her back. James Hunter lived a pretty great life. After an idyllic childhood on the family homestead in the small town of Heart’s Destiny, Texas, James had completed his college degree before going on to act as a bad boy of professional wrestling. He teamed with his brother as the Dangerous Twins, an outlaw biker tag team, for the Galactic Wrestling Association. He was living the dream, traveling the world while working at a job he loved. The only drawback was the feeling of jealousy he had at seeing the married wrestlers who traveled with their families. At twenty-five, he was starting to feel like it was time to cut back on the nights out at bars and start settling down to build a family. Random one-night stands weren’t fulfilling anymore, but it was hard to find The One when he was traveling three-hundred-and-twenty days a year and not in one place long enough to really start a relationship. When good girl meets bad boy, sparks fly. Fate seemed to be pushing him in the right direction the night James met Randi. It was instalove for the pro wrestler and the sheriff’s daughter. They fell hard and fast for each other, but could they maintain their love when his travel schedule reduced them to a mostly texting romance? Or could they find a way to be together more than the nine days they got together for his Thanksgiving vacation and her sister's wedding to his other best friend? He was the dirty-talking alpha man of her dreams, and she was the sexy, sweet woman of his. When a pregnancy mix-up pitted the lovebirds against her overprotective father, things looked bleak for their future together. Would James's love be enough to help Randi find and accept who she really was deep inside? Would he be able to pull back on his alpha tendency to take over her life and protect her from the world long enough for the wonderful woman inside her to shine when she's ready to show her true self to the world? When all is said and done, will James and Randi finally get their happily ever after? DISCLAIMER: This sheriff's daughter, good girl meets a dirty-talking, alpha, pro wrestler bad boy, instalove, pro sports romance book contains profanity, graphic sex scenes, therapy to deal with childhood emotional trauma, and a surprise pregnancy for secondary characters that is temporarily believed to be the main characters' baby by several of their family members and the surrounding small town residents. It is intended for adult readers (18+) who are not easily offended.
